

6th Annual Salon Khouri Cut-A-Thon: Help "Cut Out" Pediatric Cancer!

Please participate in our 6th Annual Cut-A-Thon on Sunday, October 14th to raise money for in honor of both Taylor Love and Ava Buhr. Taylor is a sweet, courageous 7 year old Ashburn, VA girl fighting Neuroblastoma. Taylor has inspired us for six years. Diagnosed at just 18 months old with this awful disease, Taylor has fought through six years of treatments, testing, surgeries, and even chemo-induced leukemia. Ava Buhr is an adorable 3 ½ year old who was diagnosed with Pre-B Acute Lymphoblastic Leukemia in November of 2011. Ava is currently in remission but will have to continue chemotherapy until just before her 5th birthday.

WHEN: Sunday, October 14, 2012 from 11 AM to 3:00 PM

WHERE: Salon Khouri, 11725 Lee Highway, Fairfax, VA 22030

WHAT: Haircuts by donation will be $25, or as much as you feel you can give!

Kids are encouraged to participate!!

We will have FACEPAINTING and a BAKE SALE!!!

100% of all funds collected will go The Arms Wide Open Cancer Foundation and the Band of Parents Foundation. To learn more about pediatric cancer, please visit thetruth365.org. Each day, 36 children will be diagnosed with cancer. Funding for pediatric cancer research from the government is limited. Time is running out for many of these children -- money stands between them and a cure.
